A. Introduction

The West Nipissing Child Care Corporation hereinafter referred to as "The Corporation" was incorporated in 1990 as a non-profit organization with a charitable designation. As an accredited organization, the Corporation holds an operating license recognized by the Ministry of Education which it applies in the operation of its services and is recognized by the Child Care and Early Years Act, 2014.

B. Program Philosophy

The social and emotional development of children is at the heart of our philosophy. In this respect, the child initiates certain activities and learns through play. The needs and abilities of each child are respected.

Our program is based on the unconditional acceptance of the child. The pedagogical approach used in our home-based daycare services is based on the four foundations of learning: belonging, well-being, engagement and expression, according to the Ministry of Education's document "How Does Learning Happen?".

The child learns to develop a healthy and positive relationship with the adult which is an essential quality for emotional and social development.

C. Mission, Vision, and Values

C.1 Our Mission

Our mission is to bring together child care resources under one Corporation and to provide a range of programs and services that best meet the needs of families in the West Nipissing and the Sudbury East areas.

C.2 Our Vision of the Child

The child is competent, capable of complex thinking, naturally curious and full of potential. The child is at the center of the family, staff, and environment. Every child should feel that she or he belongs, that she or he makes a valuable contribution to those around and that she or he deserves the opportunity to succeed.

C.3 Our Vision of the Family

The family is the primary influence on their child's learning, development, health, and well-being. They want the best for their child. The family provides a diversity of social, cultural, and linguistic perspectives.

C.4 Our Vision of the Home-Based Child Care Provider

The home-based child care provider is a caring, thoughtful, and resourceful para-professional. He or she creates engaging environments and experiences that support children's learning and development. Reference: "How Does Learning Happen? - Ontario's Early Childhood Education Program"

E.1 Home-Based Child Care - Service Description

The home-based child care service was established to help provide access to quality child care for children from birth to twelve (12) years, living in West Nipissing and Sudbury East.

The Corporation is responsible for:

- linking parents with approved providers who will offer exceptional care to their child or children, and
- for the careful selection of child care providers who play an essential part in the quality of service we offer.

The home-based child care service selects and trains providers carefully since they play an essential part in our quality of service.

- Providers must participate in an information session and a minimum of four (4) workshops a year. The service is issued a yearly license by the Ministry of Education.
- The Ministry requires the agency to ensure that providers follow regulations regarding adult/child ratio, security, and nutrition as set out in the CCEYA 2014 and Private Home Day Care Regulations.
- At least once every two months, the Home Visitor meets with the providers in their home-based child care program to offer support, suggestions and help with programming.
- The providers must offer a safe, healthy, and stimulating environment for the child. Daily programming is essential, to enhance or develop the child's autonomy, as well as his or her physical, social, academic, and communication skills.
- All meals and snacks must be planned in accordance with the Canada Food Guide. All children must be disciplined respectfully and with affection.
- Corporal punishment is not permitted.

The home-based child care ratio is no more than six (6) children at one time in a provider's home. This includes the provider's own child(ren) under the age of four (4). This ensures that all children receive individual attention.

In a licensed service, parents and the home-based child care service providers become partners in the child's development. Good communication is essential to ensure security, and collaboration is essential to the child's development.

If a provider, volunteer, or student contravenes the program statement, additional support and training will be provided to ensure the individual's full understanding of the requirements.

E.2 Standing and Recreational Bodies of Water

Under Ontario Regulation 137/15 30.1 (1), no child under six (6) years old who receives home-based child care at the premises is permitted to use or have access to any standing or recreational body of water on the premises.

If a provider permits children who are six (6) years old or older who receive home-based child care at the premises to use or have access to a standing or recreational body of water at the premises, he or she must ensure that at all times when the children use or have access to the body of water, a lifeguard is present.

If the home-based child care provider is a certified lifeguard, he or she may act in the role of the lifeguard; supervision of the entire group of children must be assured when this role is taken. For more information, please consult sub-section 2.9 (Water/swimming safety) of the Home Child Care Centre Licensing Manual.

F. Early Childhood Curriculum

F.1 Ontario's Early Years Curriculum

The curriculum or program for learning in early childhood settings is the sum of experiences, activities and events that occur in an inclusive environment. It is designed to promote children's well-being, learning and development, and to ensure the meaningful participation of each child.

Providers connect with, observe, and listen to children. Through play and inquiry, young children practice ways of learning and interacting with the world around them that they will use throughout their lives.

Through strategies such as problem-solving, critical thinking, communication, collaboration, creativity, imagination, initiative, and citizenship, the child will have the opportunity to further develop curiosity, initiative and independence, decision-making skills, interaction and respect for others, physical activity, communication, her or his personal efforts, and cognitive and social skills.

F.2 Goals Regarding Children and Families:

- Provide quality home-based child care to families in West Nipissing and Sudbury East;
- Promote the development of the child through enriching and stimulating activities;
- Contribute to the mental health of the child and family;
- Promote the development of the child through healthy and hygienic nutrition;
- Stimulate the child's curiosity, self-esteem, and respect for friends;

A support committee is available to assist in such decisions.

- It is recommended that questions, comments and/or suggestions be submitted in writing to ensure a prompt response.

I.1 Communication Process for Reporting an Issue or Concern

- The Corporation recognizes the important role of the parent as the first educator. If a problem or concern arises, it is important to maintain an atmosphere of trust, cooperation, and openness, to ensure the smooth operation of the home-based child care service. Communication between the parent and home-based child care providers should be open, respectful, and transparent.
- As illustrated in the diagram below, the parent should first and foremost communicate directly with the home-based child care provider to discuss a particular question or problem. If the answer is not satisfactory or the problem is not resolved according to expectations, the parent can contact the supervisor. - The provider communicates regularly with the parent to inform them of the child's level of adjustment.
- The parent is informed of their child's activities based on daily observations during the child's stay in the program.
- Individual goals are set and discussed with the parent for each child.
- Regular communication is maintained between the parent and the provider to ensure a constant approach that promotes adaptation to the home-based child care service.

DD.8 Water Safety Best Practices for all Licensed Child Care Operators

Standing and Recreational Bodies of Water

As per Ontario Regulation 137/15, 30.1 (1):

1. On-Premises

- No child under six years old who receives home-based child care at the premises is permitted to use or have access to any standing or recreational body of water on the premises.
- The home-based child care provider shall therefore prohibit the use of and access to all standing bodies of water (e.g., ponds, lakes) and recreational in-ground / above-ground swimming, portable / “kiddie” / inflatable wading-type, and hydro-massage pools, hot tubs, whirlpool, and spas located on the premises where the provider resides. (single or multi-dwelling private residence, including a provider’s own house, townhouse complex or apartment building).
- Children 6 years of age or older are permitted to use and have access to a standing or recreational body of water on the premises if a qualified lifeguard and provider are present.
- If a provider permits children who are six years old or older who receive home-based child care at the premises to use or have access to a standing or recreational body of water at the premises, the provider must ensure that:
- At all times when the children use or have access to the body of water, a lifeguard is present. If the home-based child care provider is a certified lifeguard, they may act in this role. However, consideration must be given to the supervision of the entire group of children when this role is taken.
- Where applicable, all Home-based child care homes that have standing bodies of water/swimming pools must be following local by-laws requiring private residences with standing bodies of water/pools etc in their catchment area to have an enclosure (e.g., fence and a latched gate).

- The use of on-premise splash pads, sprinklers, hoses or water tables, under close supervision of adults at all times, are considered safer alternatives during cooling or play / sensory activities.

2. Off-Premises

Home-based child care operators may decide to have children attend and use public pools (e.g. for swimming lessons). In this case, it is strongly recommended that children attend regulated “public pools” (see the Health Promotion and Protection Act, and Regulation 565 (Public Pools) where:

- there is a qualified lifeguard(s) on duty at all times in accordance with Regulation 565;
- the rules of the public pool are followed;
- the children are accompanied and directly supervised by adults at all times (i.e. a person who is 18 years or older);
- CCEYA 2014 ratios / maximum number of children receiving care in the PHDC home location are maintained at all times; and
- parents/guardians are advised of the field trip and have signed a consent form.
